“ Joan was a beautiful person on the inside and out. I'll always remember walking down the hall at Tendercare with her singing "Swing low sweet chariot..." , and talking with her about the photos of her with family and especially the one with her and the basset hounds. She'll be sorely missed by all of us who were fortunate enough to have known her. ”

“ I will always remember my grandmother for all the love she gave to me throughout my life. As the years went by, she found a good place in Tendercare in Munising. To Daronda and all the staff there, thank you for helping me rest assured knowing she was well cared for. I know my mother is very thankful for all of you. I'm happy for my grandmother that she's finally at peace; I just selfishly miss her a ton.
