“ *Dan, John, and families,
Please know that you're in my prayers. Dan was a best friend of mine growing up. And Toot & Chooch were some of my favorite people. They always welcomed me into their home. Like Becky, I too remember Toot making Schinderle's Italian bread toast with peanut butter for breakfast. I often scored some myself. While losing your parents is hard, please remember all the good times they provided. May God bless their souls and comfort you.*

“ Hello - I'm so sorry for your loss. May your many loving memories help comfort you going forward. I remember your mom so very fondly especially her teaching me to ski at Pine Mountain on the baby and bunny hills. Your parents were also so willing to take me along on Sunday afternoon rides around the area as we sang songs and had such a fun time! I can still see her greeting me at your side door in the summer months when I ran over first thing in the mornings and watching her toast what seemed like a whole loaf of bread every day! Your backyard tent was the best, too! I know she will be looking over you all from her eternal home. Much love and hugs to you all. Becky Anderson
