John and Carol Corriveau

HARDWOOD - John N. Corriveau, 78, and Carol J. Corriveau, 77, of Hardwood, passed away Friday, Aug. 19, 2005.

John was born May 1, 1927, in Iron Mountain, son of the late Arthur and Ora (Bellefeuille) Corriveau. After his high school graduation, he attended Valparaiso Technical School. John was an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Navy.

Carol was born May 25, 1928, in Iron Mountain, daughter of the late Henry and Lottie (Cootware) Peronto. She was a graduate of Iron Mountain High School.

John and Carol were married on June 12, 1946, in Iron Mountain. They moved to the Milwaukee area where John worked as an electrical engineer for WISN Channel 12 in Milwaukee for 27 years, retiring in 1981. They returned to this area in 1981.

In their retirement, John and Carol enjoyed spending the winters in Yuma, Ariz. They also enjoyed vegetable and flower gardening, traveling, jewelry making, and music, especially classical guitar.

They are survived by their five children, Dennis (Kathy) Corriveau of Big Bend, Wis., David Corriveau of Milwaukee, Keith (Ruth) Corriveau of Onalaska, Wis., Susan (Robert) Lazich of Green Valley, Calif. and Linda (Michael) Lange of Big Bend; Carol's brothers, Hank Peronto of Iron Mountain and Lowell Peronto of Madison, Wis. and sister, Joyce (Bill) Brew of Norway; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Carol was preceded in death by four sisters.

Private family services are being held.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of John and Carol Corriveau at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.

“ Although Karen and I knew John and Carol only for a short time and were only able to visit with them on few occasions there love for each other was obvious. Our deepest sympathies to their family.
