“ To Jacks family,
Jack was part of the Holiday Kitchen family too. He came in, almost daily, since I opened in 2001,,,always with a smile, and a kind word, for all.
The waitstaff and hostess's knew where he liked to sit, and how he took his coffee. He was a wonderful man, and he will be missed.
Our deepest condolences on Jack's passing.
Gene Levenburg & Family, and the whole gang, that knew him, at Holiday.

“ To John's Family

Sorry to hear of your John passing away.

My wife Elaine, sister Persie and I visited David Faccio last summer in Hermansville. I don't know if David was related to John but David was one of my best childhood friends. David's Mother Eunice had me over for dinner once in a while. I think John and David were about the same age. David and his wife are still going great and we found out that his wife is related to one of my wife's relatives. I wish that I knew one of John's favorite places was the T&T because it was also my family's favorite place to go to. I married Elaine Moreau from Niagara and her brother Patrick Moreau (Choppers) family and mine have a beautiful camp about five miles southwest of Niagara. We all go to the T&T and probably were there when John was there. Wish that we knew him then. My family lives in the Milwaukee, WI area and we have been here since 1965. We go to our camp often. We love going to Niagara and Hermansville. I was born in Hermansville in 1936 and knew the Faccio Family. My Father Bert St. Onge and Mother Norma moved from Hermansville to Kingsford after the lumber mill shut down in the early forties. I have so many fond memories of Hermansville and the people that lived there. It was such a great place to grow up in. John was the same as my brother LeRoy and I was two years younger than John. My younger brothers Stanley and Myron were born in Hermansville also. My two sisters Persie and Sandy were born in Iron Mountain. My brothers LeRoy, Stanley and Myron have all passed away. My two sisters still live in the U.P.

I had so many friends and relatives in Hermansville and it was always home to me. My Grandfather Hector Dugree, Grandmother Emma Dugree and my Aunts Verna and Edna lived there after my family moved away. We visited them often. My Uncle John, Aunt Agnes and Cousin Johnny Rodman were also on visit often list. My Cousin Thomas St. Onge's Vietnam museum in Hermansville is quite the place to have in his memory. It is one of our stops there. It said in John's Obituary that his sister Maxine Whitens preceded him in death. There was a cute little girl in my class in the Hermansville school by the name of Maxine Fletcher. I think she married David Whitens. Was she John's sister? I have spent a lot of time in the Hermansville Cemetery because most of my old friends and relatives are there with my Father and two brothers LeRoy and Stanley. I have seen a monument in the Cemetery for David Whitens and his wife Maxine. Would that be the same Maxine Flecther that was in my class?

I have rambled along for quite a while and hope John's family does not mind.

If possible would someone please send me an E-Mail message to (dstonge2@att.net) or call me at my home number (414)769-7459). It would be great to hear from John's Family.

“Faccio Family: I did not know Mr. Faccio, but I worked with his son, Sgt. John Faccio for many years as a member of the Michigan State Police. Sgt. John Faccio is a man of character, integrity, and a leader. Mr. and Mrs. Faccio should be proud of the son they raised and the man he became through their efforts. I know his values are from the examples Mr. Faccio instilled in John Jr.

Please accept my sincerest condolences and prayers.
