“ Dear Auntie Ann, Barb, Donna and Family,
We are so sorry about Uncle Johnnie. We sure wanted to be there, but we have a house full of company and couldn't get there in time. We are so happy we saw Uncle and Aunt before we left for Florida. When Bob leaned over and said his usual departing prayer with Johnnie he smiled that angelic smile. He was always so happy when Bob would pray with him.
We have many happy memories of our visits with him and will miss him terribly. We are sorry to have missed being there and seeing all of you, but know you are all in our thoughts and prayers. See you when we get home Auntie Ann.

Sarah and Jordan are here with us right now and she said she really enjoyed her visit with them in when she was in Iron Mountain this winter. She enjoyed stopping to see them when she had the chance. Jordan always loves pushing Auntie's chair around so he can give her a ride whether she wants one or not. Anyway, she sends her prayers too.
