“ Dear Betty,

I just received an email from Paul about the passing of Dr. Rahm. Jenny and I would like to wish you peace in this difficult time. Dr. Rahm was a really neat man. When Paul and I were first roommates in college, I can remember asking him some of the craziest medical questions, and he always treated them with respect. He was a very respectful man, and I know you will miss him greatly, as will many people. God Bless you in this difficult time.
