"Joseph Bartolameolli"

IRON MOUNTAIN - Joseph Francis Bartolameolli, of 309 Fourth St., Iron Mountain, died on Feb. 20, 2005, after a very brief illness.

Joe was born on April 4, 1916, to Amadeo and Cathryn (Fedrizzi)

Bartolameolli in Loretto. His family moved to Iron Mountain when Joe was a child and he spent his entire life here, except for serving in the Army in Europe in World War II.

He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Vera (Geline) of Iron Mountain and their son, Joe (Bernie) Bartolameolli of Menasha, Wis.

Also surviving are his brother, Ernie (Clarine) Bartolameolli of Iron Mountain and four grandchildren, Lori (Dean) Vernon of Grand Rapids, lower Michigan, Sheila Bartolameolli (Bill) Todd of Tonka Bay, Minn., Wendy (Bill) Wilson of Minneapolis and Jeff (JoAnn) Bartolameolli of DePere, Wis. Also surviving are 11 great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death, in addition to his parents, were his daughter, Rita (Lundell), three sisters, Linda Weiser, Minnie Simons and infant Mary, and two brothers, John and Guido.

Joe led an outdoor life in both his vocation and in his leisure time. He enjoyed working with wood and was a carpenter-contractor for most of his working years, having built many homes in the area, including his own and his camp. His greatest passions in life were brook trout fishing, watching football of all levels, playing cards and morra, and spending time at his camp. Joe will be sadly missed by those who knew and loved him.

His family thanks the staff at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Iron Mountain and Pinecrest Medical Care Facility in Powers for their kind and understanding care.

Private services were held at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home with the funeral arrangements.
