“ To Joe's family and friends,
With all my heart I grieve for your loss, yet heaven has gained a champion of ways. I am pleased I had a time to know the family Joe hailed from. You are good souls. A week never went by without Joe and I talking all these years eithing in deep discussions or just plain ole' fun hunting and fishing. I will never forget the time I bought two pipes at hunting season. The first person to take a kill gets to smoke their pipe in front of the other. I thought I had a chance. I was wrong! He smoked that pipe with glee and a red smirk-face I'll cherish for a long time. I always felt he was my loved mentor, pointing out paths of patience and buckled-down choices. I will truly miss him more than even I can express. He was my favorite person to sneak off camping with. The stories are endless and are loving memories. I pray you all carry on His strength to move forward as Joe would want it no other way. God Bless and may life Bless all of you.
Love,
David
