

Joseph M. Scott

May 21, 1958 - February 10, 2015

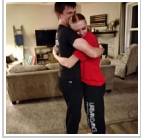

Joseph M. Scott, 56, of Iron Mountain, died February 10, 2015. Joseph was born in Detroit, son of the late John Scott and Mary (Lehr) Scott. He was employed as a painter for Pride Manufacturing in Florence, WI. Joseph was a nature lover who enjoyed hiking and kayaking. He was deeply spiritual and had a very gentle soul. He was loved by many.

Joseph is survived by his wife, Cynthia (nee Hancock); his mother, Mary Scott; stepson, Eric Hancock; granddaughter, Makayla Hancock; brothers, David (Dawn) Scott, Ed (Anne) Scott, and James Scott; sisters, Ann (Jerry) Blackwell, Janet Pascoe, Leta (Tyler) Lee, Julie Wylie, and Theresa (Gary) Burns; and many nieces and nephews.

Private services will be held. Condolences may be expressed to the family of Joseph Scott online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

“ *For Cindy and all who knew and loved Joe,
We would love to share this wonderful memory we have of Joe...*

On a visit Kevin and I had a few years ago, all of us sat around the campfire while Kevin was strumming his guitar, singing the song "Boat On the River" by Styx.

Joe loved it! And Kevin played it many times as we sang along or just listened. The words speak to me at this tragic time and seem to bring comfort.

To Cindy and all who knew and loved Joe, I pray these words bring you peace.

Dear Joe, May you float with the angels through the rivers of heaven and be greeted by your loved ones that have gone before you. Until we meet again.....

Love, Nancy & Kevin

“ For Cindy and all of our family I pray for healing and peace as we celebrate Joe home. I feel so fortunate to have visited Cindy and Joe last October in Iron Mountain. Remembering that, I can still feel Joe in my arms as I hugged him goodbye, I am so blessed for that. To Joe, I say the same thing I said then, See ya later Bro! I love you.
