“ Amy, So sorry for your loss. Such a sweetheart and very special lady! Never forget supper at your house. She was quite the hostess, great cook and had a special way of making sure you felt welcome. She definitely loved people and enjoyed their company. It's never easy to lose a parent You can feel good knowing that you have been an awesome caregiver for your parents, who are very appreciative I'm sure. The rewards are great in this life and the next, and you will have no regrets. Stay close to Him and you will find strength and peace and comfort knowing we will see them again one day. Remember Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." Blessings to you.....and hugs! :)
