

Karen Marie Juneau

November 19, 1947 - October 27, 2023

Karen Marie Juneau, 75, passed away on Friday, October 27th, 2023, with her family by her side at the Aspirus Iron River Hospital.

She was born in Iron Mountain on November 19th, 1947, daughter of the late William G. and Irene H. (Matza) Juneau. She was the second oldest of five with her being the only girl. Known as “squeaks” to her family and friends, a nickname she earned from loving a childhood stuffed puppy with a squeaky tail that she liked to annoy her brothers with. She attended Catholic School at American Martyrs in Kingsford and was a graduate of Kingsford High School in 1966. Later on, she also attended Bay College taking computer classes. She married and divorced twice and had three children, Stephen R. Schoen Jr., Nicholas C. Schoen and Mason I. Axberg. She worked in the food service industry for most of her life bar tending and cooking at the T&T Supper Club and Pine Grove Golf Club.

She was known to be a loving, determined, strong and to be direct when needed to be with three boys. She enjoyed fishing, boating, camping, being outdoors with her sons, riding her motorcycle, cooking, and water skiing.

She was also known for being a free spirit and walking around with bare feet while carrying her shoes to enter stores. And colors, she loved mixing up different colors on the walls and in life.

Her determination also earned a brown belt in Judo and was presented with an award for furthest traveled to participate in a tournament in Minneapolis, MN.

She will be missed by her sons, Nicholas and Mason, grandchildren Zach and Emma Axberg, brothers William Juneau Jr. Albert Juneau Jr. and John Juneau (Leon Steinbrecher) and many other family and friends.

In addition to her parents Karen is preceded in death by her son Stephen R. Schoen Jr., brother Joseph A Juneau, sisters-in-law, Marcia and Linda Juneau.

A private service will be held at a later date.

Karen's family would like to thank the staff at Iron County Medical Facility for their care and support.
