“ I came to know Karen about through our quilting group "The Saintly Stitchers" which I joined in 2003. It was a pleasure getting to know her, she was caring and fun; and she was such an example of courage in fighting cancer. She will truly be missed by all of us. You have my sympathy.

“ I was very saddened to hear about Karen. She was often in my thoughts this last year. I enjoyed getting to know her through scrapbooking and stamping together. Two years ago, we scrapbooked together on my birthday and we had such a great time. I'll never forget that night! She is going to be missed very much by all of us that knew her and cared about her. We'll miss her smile, her laugh, and her company at our gatherings. She was such an inspiration. She touched many lives with her contagious kindness and energy. I'll always remember her with great fondness.
