

Kenneth Baumel

Kenneth Baumel

IRON MOUNTAIN- Kenneth N. Baumel, 67, of 129 Lehman Ave. Iron Mountain died Thursday, Dec. 30, 2004, at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Iron Mountain.

He was born on June 14, 1937, in Kingsford the son of the late Harold and Lorraine (Dalberto) Baumel.

Mr. Baumel served in the U.S. Navy. He graduated from San Francisco State University and worked as a communication specialist for the government. He also worked as a realtor.

He married Neva Mechow on March 11, 1967, in California.

Ken is survived by his wife, Neva; two daughters Lauralee (Scott) Balash of Iron Mountain and Maryjane Baumel of Portland, Ore.; two sons, Andrew of Clackamas, Ore., and Kenneth of Portland, Ore.; two grandchildren, Ian Baumel-Menendez and Ashley Mechow; and many special relatives in the Iron Mountain-Kingsford area.

He was preceded in death by a son, Timothy.

Burial will be in the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Ore.

Condolences can be expressed to the family of Kenneth Baumel online at www.tondinfuneralhome.com.

The Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ My condolences to your family. Ken and I enlisted in the navy together back in 1958. We went through boot camp together. I was sorry to hear about his death. What did he die from?

Jack Hall

Jack Hall - February 06, 2005 at 12:00 AM