“ Though we never met, I am grieved at the loss of my niece and deeply saddened that time, distance and circumstances have prevented me from being a part of the lives of my brother's children. It was in continuing to look for my estranged family members that I came across this, far too late. Please accept my deepest condolences, albeit long after her passing.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of your beloved daughter Kristy. The bible brings great comfort for those of us who have lost children. We find that John5:28,29 and 1 Cor.15:26 and finally Rev.21:3-5 are verses that help to cope with this distressing time. Be assured that Jehovah knows all who have died and in His due time will bring them back to life. Again we are sorry for your loss.

“ I am Angel's maternal Aunt, Robin. I live south of Port Huron, MI. Angel and I were very close. I am heartbroken over the loss of my beautiful, sparkling Angel. Although I never met Kristy, I too grieve because of this tragic and senseless loss for all of us. If time and transportation had permitted, I would like to have attended her funeral as well. You will be in my thoughts and prayers as we all attempt to recover from this brutal, unexpected turn in life. As a mother myself, my heart cries for her baby boy who now has no living parents and may never have any memories of his loving parents. Please do your very best to fill that gap for him as he grows up. People sacrificed their own lives to save his precious life. He is a very special child. Wasn't it wonderful how the rain stopped and the sun was shining for the funerals? Best wishes to you all.

“ There are NO words to express the desire I have to bear this grief for you Sara. (& family). I know you've heard it said a thousand times by now, but I KNOW that God will renew your spirit and in time thoughts of Kristy will bring a smile to your face and remembering her will lighten your heart. I hope that time comes soon for you all, and for me. Aunti Wendy

“ Dear Sara, Elliot, Tia, Samantha, Jeff Sr, and Jeff Jr.
I can not believe what has happened, i am so sorry to hear about Kristy. To lose Logan and Kristy in little more then a year is not fair. How much can one family go through? One can only question god and what his plans are. we will never understand his reasons, but they are for a reason. What the reason behind losing my son and Kristy is one year we will never know. But do know that God does care for each and everyone of us. It may seem at times that god has left us stranded, but he is always there by our side. Kristy was a great person, i will always remember the time she chased me in the yard playing kill the carrier. She was a great Aunt. She was one of the few people Hailey looked up to. It is too bad that she has left us so young, she will be greatly missed. I am so very sorry for your loss. Sara, and Tia i have no words to say, but if you put your faith in him, he will guide you all through this. May God Bless you all

“ Kristy was such a sweet girl, I have some pictures of a gathering at Arnold by Uncle Frank's place when I first got to meet her. What a wonderful time we had, it was one of those perfect days that makes life so wonderful. I wish I could have seen her again at another family gathering...the last time was last year at Uncle Dean's funeral. It was heartbreaking news for I and my mother and I cannot begin to imagine how it must be for everyone close to her. Our thoughts are with you all God Bless

“ Kristy was a very special young lady. She always had a smile and was most considerate of everyone. She was most proud of being a mom, which was evident by her enthusiasm, when I last saw her. She surely will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time of loss.
