

Laurie Jean Richard

September 30, 1960 - September 30, 2013

Laurie Jean Richard, 53, of Kingsford, passed away Monday, Sept. 30, 2013, at her home. Laurie died of a broken heart after being an amazing caregiver for her mother, who preceded her in death the previous day. She had gained a new zest for life while caring for her mom.

Laurie was born May 31, 1960, to Ronald and Beverly (Brault) Richard. She graduated from Kingsford High School in 1978 and was a lifelong resident of the area.

Laurie leaves behind her son, Jeffrey Snowdon of Green Bay, Wis.; father, Ronald Richard of Kingsford; brothers, Ken (Jeanne) Richard of Florence, Wis. and Dave (Shannon) Richard of Kingsford; nephews, Robbie, Andy and Jimmy; niece, Katie; a sister-like cousin, Janet Maraccini and children, Mario, Marla and Marcus; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins; and a special friend, Joanne Dennis.

She was preceded in death by her son, Jesse Snowdon; and the love of her life, Marc Hagerty.

A private gathering will be held to celebrate Laurie's life.

Tribute Wall

CT

“ Laurie, I hope you are at peace and back holding Jesse, your Mom and Mark in your arms once again. You had a wonderful short life with many sad times. You came through it with alot of smiles and the best family you could ask for to help you through it all. My memories of you are always with a smile and laughing. I hope heaven is very comforting for you and your loved ones. RIP my Friend, you are missed!

---

Cheryl Tramontin - March 03, 2014 at 01:42 PM