“ My deepest condolences to all of the family. Laverne was a very special lady. There are so many memories I have of her. She was a very strong and active lady, excellent cook, and great card player. There is no one that can make a rhubarb pie like she did. Her homemade bread was also a favorite. It was hard to get her recipes because she never had them. She just threw in a little of this and a little of that and made the best desserts. I remember she always loved Thanksgiving and being with family. Most importantly, she was a wonderful grandmother to my sons, Gary and Matthew.

You will all be in my prayers asking God to ease the pain you feel. I'm sure she is in heaven having a great time with her old friends and family.
