

Lawrence Broullire

October 17, 1928 - October 17, 2010

Lawrence J. Broullire, 82, of Aurora, died Sunday, Oct. 17, 2010, at his home.

He was born on Nov. 29, 1927, in Aurora, the son of the late Ernest and Rose (Paulich) Broullire.

Lawrence worked for more than 40 years at the Chicago Northwestern Railroad. He enjoyed being outdoors, hunting, camping, clearing land, and gardening. It gave Lawrence great pleasure to share the produce from his garden with his family and friends. He was known for the beautiful pumpkins that he grew and his water witching ability. Lawrence was always willing to help anyone and had helped on his family's farm and the VanPembrook farm.

Lawrence is survived by one brother, Ernest "Pete" Broullire of Plummer, Idaho and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by six brothers, Charles, Howard, Marvin, David, Donald, and Robert Broullire.

Visitation will be Saturday from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Kingsford Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at the funeral home. Rev. James Danielson will officiate.

Condolences to the family of Lawrence J. Broullire may be expressed online at www.ernashfunralhome.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Kingsford Funeral Home with arrangements.

“ It was always nice to see Lawrence come in. He was always happy and eager to start his garden. I know he loved his little dog. I always made sure he had a treat for his dog when he came out of the store. Very sorry for your loss. I know he will be missed!!!
