

Lawrence D. Spera

September 19, 1942 - March 6, 2024

Lawrence Dominic Spera, 81, passed away Tuesday, March 5, 2024, at Florence Health Services in Florence, WI.

Larry was born September 19, 1942, and lived in Iron Mountain, MI, for most of his life. He was enlisted in the US Army before finishing his bachelor's degree in social services. He worked for TRICO in Kingsford, MI, for several years before going to work in the family business, Spera's Supper Club in Spread Eagle, WI, which he ran up until his retirement in 2019.

He was an avid Packer fan and an overall kind and loving human being. He will be missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents Quinto and Doris Spera, and sister, Sheila Bertrand.

There will be a graveside service on Tuesday, March 12, 2024, at 12:00 noon at Iron Mountain Cemetery Park.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Lawrence D. Spera online at www.ernashfuneralhome.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron

Mountain with the arrangements.

“ Am so sorry to learn of the loss of Larry. Although I moved from the Iron Mountain area, my memory of our high school days with Larry are vivid. Larry's smile was infectious; he was a great team player. May his memory be a blessing. Jerry Zacks
