“ We don't know you, but we are so sorry to hear of your loss. There is nothing we can say to take your pain away. We also lost our baby girl on September 19, 2006. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. And be easy on yourselves. The pain never really does go away, but you will be able to move on. Again, we are so sorry for your loss of Leah.

“ hello, I also don't you, but I do know your loss for I as a young mother lost my daughter as well..It is a very difficult thing to go through, but like you I had my first born that needed me and I got my strengths from looking in the face of my child..you will never forget your little angel LEAH, but her spirit will surround you and you will never be alone again...I did go and have 2 more children after that loss, and when they were old enuf to understand I told them of her and every year for christmas I buy a special "angel" ornament just for her...it has helped every year to help us feel her closer to us....also, when all my children are grown and in families of there own..I will give them there special ornaments boughten over the years and my next tree will be just filled with angels..my story is long, but just wanted you to know your not alone...and I am here for support if you need it....God's Blessings during this time...and a special hug from me to ALL of YOU!!
