“ I'll Hold You in Heaven

*From the very beginning I loved you,
As I made plans to hold you and rock you:
You were tiny and helpless as you lay in my womb,
But something went wrong and soon you were gone;
My young heart was broken, my tears fell like rain,
I'd never known such heartache and pain.*

*I wonder who you look like, me or your dad,
Do you have my smile and his eyes?
Would you have been big and tall or tiny and small?
We had dreams for you that reached to the skies.
It was long, long ago and I still miss you so,
Thanks to Jesus, I'll see you in heaven.*

*I'll hold you in heaven someday,
When my trials on earth pass away;
The angels have rocked you, the Father watches over you,
I know you're waiting for me;
I never could hold you or tell you "Goodbye",
But I'll hold you in heaven someday.*

Traci...my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time.

In love and precious light

“ A Borrowed Child

*I'll lend you for a little time a child of mine; He said.
For you to love the while she lives and mourn for when she's dead.
It may be six or seven years, or twenty two or three, But will you, till I call her back,
Take care of her for me?
She'll bring her charms to gladden you, and shall her stay be brief,
You'll have her memories as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return. But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true, And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes. I have selected you.
Now will you give her all your love, nor think the labor vain, Nor hate me when I come to call to take her back again?
I fancied that I heard them say:
Dear lord thy will be done!
For all the joy thy child shall bring
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter her with tenderness, we'll love her while we may, and for the happiness we've known forever gratefull stay;
But shall the angels call for her much sooner than we've planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand.*
