

Lloyd A. Broullire

May 13, 1928 - May 28, 2026

Lloyd A. Broullire, 98, of Kingsford passed away on Thursday, May 28, 2026, at Marshfield Medical Center - Dickinson in Iron Mountain, surrounded by his family.

He was born on May 13, 1928 in Iron Mountain, son of the late Joseph and Clara (Green) Broullire. Lloyd graduated from Niagara High School in 1946 and was a lifelong resident of the area. He served his country as a United States Army veteran during World War II. Lloyd married Betty Poad on December 8, 1951, and they shared 62 years together before Betty's passing in 2014. He was employed at the Niagara Paper Mill for 42 years, retiring in 1990.

Lloyd was a dedicated and hardworking man who lived a life defined by quiet strength, generosity, and devotion to his family. He led by example and lived his faith by serving others. An active member of the First Global Methodist Church in Iron Mountain, Lloyd served the church in many capacities and was a trustee for several years. He was also a proud life member of the American Legion. Known by family and friends as a gifted handyman and true "Jack of all trades," he earned the affectionate nickname "MacGyver" for his remarkable ability to fix anything.

Lloyd found great joy in the simple things. He was an avid gardener, especially known for his excellent beans, and took pride in his canning. He lived a simple, honest life and was deeply generous with both his time and talents. Whether helping family or friends with projects around the home, Lloyd was always ready to lend a hand. Above all, his family was his greatest priority and his deepest source of happiness. He cherished every moment spent with them and found his greatest fulfillment in supporting and caring for those he loved.

Lloyd is survived by a son, Allen (Teena) Broullire of Kingsford; a daughter, Nancy (Tracy) LaFleur of Kingsford; a son-in-law, Mark Hansch of Iron Mountain; grandchildren, Kortnee (Nick) Fornetti, Jourdan (Emily) Broullire, Amber (Jeramiah) Butterfield and Michael (Lindsey) LaFleur; and great-grandchildren, Kaleb, Emery, Jude, Lucas, Aubree, Hailee, McKenna (Will), Traci, Jaxson, Konnor, Grayson, Calum and Isaiah.

Along with his parents and wife, Lloyd was preceded in death by a daughter, Denyce Hansch and four siblings.

Visitation will be on Friday, June 5th from 9:00 to 11:00 am at First Global Methodist Church in Iron Mountain, followed by a funeral service at 11:00 am at the church. Rev. Walter Reichle will officiate. Burial will be in the Quinnesec Cemetery.

All memorial donations received will be given to the First Global Methodist Church in Iron Mountain.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Lloyd A. Broullire online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

ME

“ I grew up in the pew behind Lloyd and Betty...We no longer attend First church, but my kids, upon hearing of his passing, immediately reminded me he had the "spicy candy" ❤️. He used to have mint Life Savers for them on Sunday mornings. One of the best, and a life well-lived. Much love to all his family ❤️

“ I remember picking green beans in his garden when I was a little girl. I remember playing the piano for him sitting next to Auntie Betty even though I didn't know how to play. I remember tinkering in the basement and swinging in the yard. I was so excited to see him come to California a couple years ago to see my parents, his sister. I am glad I was able to come out and see him recently. I loved them both so much. I am so blessed to be a part of this family, I love all of you!
