

Lodavine Isabelle Thorne

August 27, 1925 - February 6, 2017

Lodavine Isabelle Thorne, 91, of Iron Mountain, MI, died peacefully in her sleep Monday afternoon, February 6, 2017 in her apartment at Victorian Pines Estates. She was born August 27, 1925 in Iron Mountain to Angelo and Margaret (Rossi) Cecconi. She married the love of her life, Richard W. Thorne on May 12, 1950. Survivors include four children: Richard C. (Aileen) Thorne, Hartford, WI; Deborah (Peter) Baker, McMillan, MI; Pamela (Parnell) Pierce, Ashwaubenon, WI and Dennis (Diane) Thorne, Menominee, MI. Lod is also survived by six grandchildren: Miles Baker, Washington, D.C.; Ryan Pierce, Madison, WI; Maggie (Aaron) Hayward, Canyon Lake, TX; Micol (Kyle) Becker, Hartford, WI; Emily Hoskins and Zach Hoskins, DePere, WI and great-grandsons Brooks Becker and Evan Hayward. Lod leaves behind many loved ones including cherished cousins, nieces, nephews, and many friends. Lodavine is preceded in death by her husband, parents, brothers Ray, Ricardi and Richard and sisters Mary Lagina and Leona Jolette. Lodavine was a long time resident of Menominee, MI where she lived forty years before returning to Iron Mountain in 2008, where she lived very happily in the comfort of Victorian Pines Estates. A loving and fiercely loyal wife and mother, Lodavine would defend her family with a surprising tenacity belying her small size. She was everything a mother should be: wise, honest, kind, generous and fair. Nothing brought Lod more joy than when her family was together talking, laughing, and enjoying one of her epic Italian feasts. Her love of family and joy in life was embodied within her beautiful smile. Lod's loved ones take solace in that, and the impact she had on their lives through her steadfast encouragement, sacrifices and belief in their hopes and dreams. Lodavine's legacy will be the life lessons learned by her family who were blessed to experience a life well-lived.

Lodavine's celebration of life is Friday, February 10, 2017 in Iron Mountain. The visitation is at Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home, 901 Carpenter Ave. from 11am-12:30pm. The funeral mass follows at Immaculate Conception Church, 500 E. Blaine Street, at 1pm. Burial will immediately follow mass at Cemetery Park. “ Lodavine is the last of that "Italian Trio" of cousins to leave us. Lodavine, Irene, and Kathleen took care of their generation of younger cousins as we were growing up. They were such fun to have around.

Lodavine's smile was so infectious that she energized those around her. She did just that when she honored me at my 50th anniversary of ordination party in Iron Mountain on July 3, 2015. I will not be at her remembrance celebration or funeral Mass, but will join all her family and friends in spirit and in prayer.
