“ Dear Tia - I was very sorry to read about the loss of your son, Logan. Suffering the loss of a child must be a tremendous heartache. I hope that with the help of your family and friends you receive the comfort you need. Every now and then I read the things that I have saved from my years as a teacher in Iron Mountain and I have several such memories from you - a poem and a card when my father died, for example. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Fondly, Jean Ivory
