“ Mark,

I was very sorry to hear about the loss of your Mom. I will keep you in my prayers at this time. You have my sympathy and thoughts as you go through this difficult time. I can empathize with you, after losing my Mom last August. I hope that your memories of her life and love for you and your sister can comfort you in the future. Know that she is with the Lord, and has found eternal peace for now and for ever,

Sincerely yours, Steve
