“ To Sandy and family, I am so sorry to hear about your mom. It is truly the hardest thing to get over. being girls we connect with our moms so much. I'll keep you all in our prayers and hope it helps for me to say you know that heavens gates opened for her and now she is watching you all the time, she is in no pain anymore and is in the best place we can all be. Never forget your mom , sometimes I think I can feel my mom right next to me, or a smell that was hers. I don't ever want to forget a thing about my mom, I miss her so much, the only comfort i get is knowing she is with our Lord. I have been gone for over 14 years, I hope that your whole family can celerbrate her wonderful life.. God bless you all. Love ya, Maureen Julian Pasten

“ Cindy, Sandy, Diane, Kathy, and David, etc
I was so sorry to hear about your Mom. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. She looks the same in her picture as the last time I saw her, except for the gray hair. I would probably have about the same amount if I would let the dye wash out. God Bless you all and let Him comfort you at this rough time. Wish I could be there.
Love, Peggy
