Lolly was born on March 20, 1951 in Gladstone, MI, daughter of the late Joseph and Visitacion (Espiritu) Lucier. She grew up in Brampton and attended Gladstone High School. Against her parents wishes, Lolly eloped with David McLeod and was married in 1968. They were married eighteen years and lived in Wilson raising their three children until David's death in 1986. Lolly had been employed as a Clerk for the United States Postal Service in Kingsford for many years, retiring in 2013.

She was an avid outdoor enthusiast who loved fishing and hunting with her family. She loved gardening and was especially fond of simply watching her flowers grow. Lolly loved nature.
