

Lori S. Kiltinen

February 1, 1962 - July 30, 2020

Lori S. Kiltinen, 58, of Kingsford, passed away on Thursday, July 30th at Freeman Health and Rehabilitation Community in Kingsford.

Lori was born on February 1, 1962 in Iron Mountain, daughter of Charles and Mary (Marchand) Lauersdorf. She has been a resident of this area her entire life and was a 1980 graduate of Kingsford High School. Lori worked for Trico Opportunities in the sewing department for several years. She married Kenneth Kiltinen on June 15, 1996 at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church.

She was a member of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church. Lori loved to sew and was an expert seamstress. She also enjoyed knitting, crocheting and taking Sunday drives with her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Charles and her brother, Carl Lauersdorf.

Lori is survived by her husband, Kenneth; son, Michael of Kingsford; her mother, Mary Lauersdorf of Kingsford; brothers, Chuck (Diane) Lauersdorf of Rapid River and Gary (Shari Bal) Lauersdorf of Norway; her uncle, Ray (Sheryl) Marchand of Iron Mountain and Aunt, Jennete Marchand of Iron Mountain; sister-in-law, Beth (Larry) Linna of Skandia; brother-in-law, John (Melissa) Kiltinen of San Francisco; several nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be on Thursday, Aug. 6th from 10:00 am until 11:00 am at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church of Kingsford. Funeral services will follow at 11:00 am at the church. Rev. Matthew Ruesch will officiate.

Condolences to the family of Lori Kiltinen may be expressed online at www.erickson-rochon-nash.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home with the arrangements.

“ Very sorry to hear. Haven't seen Lori and Ken since 1997 or so. She was a very sweet woman and a talented seamstress. Was always impressed that she sewed her own beautiful wedding dress. Sympathys to Ken & Michael.
