“ Thank You Grandma for all the wonderful memories, hugs and kisses you shared with all of us throughout the years. I would love to watch you laugh at the silly things that would happen. I remember the love you had for your little dog, zippy. He sure lived up to his name!! You have taught me so much and always made the Holidays complete because you were always there with us.

This Christmas, you will not be here with us physically, but now you will be here with us in spirit. I admire you grandma, I looked up to you but most importantly, I love you.

Give Grandpa a kiss for me.

Love you forever

“ From the moment I met her, I just fell in love with her. What a lovely, elegant, respectable woman she was! Every time we had a chance to go to Iron Mountain, I couldn't wait to go visit her. I am very humbled that I actually have had an opportunity to be part of her family! Rest in Peace dear Grandma.

Also I have learned a lot just from seeing the bond she had with her family! Her daughter Betty Smart is a remarkable woman!! She was always there by her side.. I think every mother would be very proud to have a daughter like her!

The mather-daughter bond they had is incredible! I am very proud of you Betty! My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Love always- Alice.

“ My most sincere condolences Betty, Sally and the family of Lorraine. I know that she is with Jimmy and Terry and is happy. I will never forget Lorraine. She was great! I remember when our band practiced in the basement of her house, she yelled at us for cracking the plaster on the walls in the house because we played too loud. Or when Terry invited me over for lunch and Lorraine was serving spaghetti. She gave me a huge plate and I did all that I could to finish it. I no sooner than put down my fork and Lorraine piled on a second helping and was telling me that I was a growing boy and needed to eat more! By the time I finished the second helping, my eyes were ready to pop out of my head. My daughter and I visited Lorraine and Jimmy in 1994 We had a great visit. It brought back some really great memories and we shared some old stories and a few laughs. It is sad to see someone go who was a part of your life in some way good. So I guess that all that I can say good by and thank you for many great memories.
