“ Dear Mary Jane,
I am so very sorry about you losing your Mother. I am thinking about you and praying for you. I sincerely hope you will not hesitate to tell me if there is anything at all I can do for you while you are in Michigan and/or when you get back to Arizona. I've offered to help Rick and he said he would contact me if he needs a break. Please know you are loved and held close in my heart. Norma
