Lorraine Steinke

IRON MOUNTAIN - Lorraine Steinke, 86, of 1628 S. Park, Iron Mountain, died Friday, Aug. 12, 2005, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain. She was born Nov. 28, 1918, in Chicago, daughter of the late Samuel and Emma (Bock) LeRoy. She graduated from Carl Sherer High School in Chicago and then went on to study dancing and the fine arts in Chicago.

Lorraine met and married Dr. Charles Steinke on June 17, 1939, in Chicago, and he preceded her in death on Oct. 24, 2000.

For many years she taught dancing, and worked as the bookkeeper in her husband's practice.

Lorraine was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Iron Mountain. She liked to sew, and was involved with the hospital league. She was also very involved in politics in her early years in Iron Mountain.

She is survived by one daughter, Ann Louise Glaeser of Green Bay, Wis.; two sons, Charles Gilbert (Patricia) Steinke of Green Bay, and Roy James (Jane) Steinke of Kingsford; six grandchildren, Charles (LaRissa) Steinke III, Steven (Autumn) Steinke, Jerome "J.C." Glaeser, Jeffrey Steinke, Roy Steinke Jr., and Jared Steinke; three great-grandchildren, Casandra and Chelsea Berry, and Samantha Steinke.

Lorraine was preceded in death by a sister, Iris, and two brothers, Chester and Howard.

Private family services are being held. Rev. Pauline Rupe will officiate. Burial will be in Cemetery Park in Iron Mountain. Grandsons will serve as Pallbearers.

The family of Lorraine Steinke thanks Nustar Home Health Services for their kindness and compassion throughout these past years.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Lorraine Steinke online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.
