

Louis Antonini

March 5, 1921 - March 5, 2008

IRON MOUNTAIN - Louis J. Antonini, 87, of Iron Mountain, died Wednesday, March 5, 2008, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital.

He was born on April 7, 1920, in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Biago and Assunta (Giachino) Antonini.

Louis was a lifelong resident of the area. He was a mechanic and owned and operated two gas stations. He also worked for the Dickinson County Library and drove the bookmobile.

He had a passion for classic cars and enjoyed playing horseshoes. Louis was a loving grandpa and liked to joke and have a good time.

He is survived by his daughter, Theresa Kayser of Iron Mountain; two sons Joe (Vicki) Antonini of Spread Eagle, Wis. and Dan (Pat Herman) Antonini of Kingsford; one brother, Alvio (Jean) Antonini of Sun City, Ariz.; seven grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Louis was preceded in death by two brothers, Dario and Raymond and two sisters, Elda and Toni.

A memorial service will be held on Monday, March 17, 2008, at 11:30 a.m. at Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home. Rev. David Anderson will officiate.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Louis J. Antonini online at www.tondinfuneralhome.com

The family has entrusted the Tondin-Ross & Freeman Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.

“ My sister, Pat Erickson, forwarded the obituary notice to me. I'm sorry for your loss. Theresa, it has been many years since we have touched base, but you and your family were not forgotten. Every now and then I remember back about those many years ago. It is hard to lose a loved one, but hopefully you can draw on the memories of the good times. My thoughts are with you.
