

Louis Occhietti

April 25, 1925 - April 25, 2007

IRON MOUNTAIN - Louis J. Occhietti, 82, of Iron Mountain died Wednesday, April 25, 2007, at the Veteran's Administration Medical Center in Iron Mountain.

He was born on June 24, 1924, in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Natale and Minnie (Di Biase) Occhietti.

Louis served in the U.S. Navy during World War II in the Pacific Theater.

He worked for the City of Iron Mountain and the Veteran's Administration Medical Center, retiring in 1977. After his retirement he went to work for J and J Security. He was a member of St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church and a life member of the Disabled American Veterans.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, bowling, golfing and going to the casino. He also enjoyed listening to music, singing and dancing. Louis loved to make many creative inventions and projects in his workshop.

Louis married Rosemary Tichelaar on May 6, 1950, at St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church. The couple enjoyed traveling, including a trip to Europe. They also spent many winters in Tucson, Ariz.

He is survived by his wife, Rosemary; a son, David Occhietti of North Carolina; a daughter, Donna (Joseph) Krall of Canton, Mich.; three grandchildren, Kristal Occhietti of Kingsford, Joseph Krall Jr. of Canton, and Kylene Occhietti of St. Cloud, Minn.; four great-grandchildren, Jonathan, Alexis and Lindsey Aichner and Evi Hebbeln; uncle, Frank Di Biase of Iron Mountain and many cousins.

Visitation will be held on Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Tondin-Ross and Freeman Funeral Home.

Funeral services will follow at 1 p.m. at St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church. Father Daniel Zaloga will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Entombment will be in Cemetery Park.

Condolences to the family of Louis J. Occhietti can be expressed online at www.tondinfuneralhome.com.

The family has entrusted the Tondin-Ross and Freeman Funeral Home with the arrangements.
