

Louise M. Lindquist

August 19, 1924 - April 3, 2019

Louise Lindquist, 94, a longtime resident of Kingsford Michigan died Wednesday, April 3, 2019 at Mary Hill Nursing Home in Niagara.

She was born on August 19, 1924 in Quinnesec Michigan, the daughter of the late Roland and Victoria LaHaie. Louise was a lifelong resident of the area.

Louise married Wallace "Wally" Lindquist January 20th, 1942 in Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Louise was a stay-at-home mom until 1965 when she and Wally bought the laundromat on Woodward Avenue. Louise was an avid Crafter, including, knitting/crochet, ceramics and sewing. She and Wally also loved to Garden and were known for their beautiful gardens. Some might be surprised to know that Louise and Wally enjoyed riding motorcycle together and toured much of the U. P. During their retirement years.

Louise is survived by her daughter, Cheryl Chartier of Milwaukee Wisconsin, 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Louise was preceded in death by her husband, Wally and her two sons, Ronald Lindquist and Gary Lindquist.

A private graveside funeral will be held, Friday, April 12, 2019 at Quinnesec Cemetery, with burial following immediately thereafter.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to the The Almost Home Animal Shelter at 5060 Lincoln Ave. Quinnesec, MI. 49876

Condolences to the family of Louise M. Lindquist may be expressed online at ernashfunerahomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

I have so many fond memories of spending time at Wally and Louise's house in high school with Jeff. Louise was always so kind and sweet. She is now reunited with the love of her life. RIP sweet Louise.
