Marge was born November 20, 1934, in Stiles, WI, the daughter of Zoe (Younger) and Mark Murphy and was the oldest of 13 children. After graduating from Lena High School, Marge attended Misericordia School of Nursing in Milwaukee, WI. On April 14, 1956, she married Ronald Janousek in Lena, WI, and they were lovingly married for 63 years before he passed in 2019.

Marge is survived by five children: Mark of Surprise, AZ; Dawn (Dennis) Mellenthin of Green Bay, WI; Trish (Butch) Rieschl of Birchwood, WI; Kim (Nan) Janousek of Green Bay, WI; and Matt (Kristen) Janousek of Iron Mountain, MI. She is also survived by six grandchildren: Andrea, Chris, Tracy, Dan, Paige and Eden; five great-grandchildren: Adison, Brody, Shelby, Jax, and Charlie; sisters, Kathleen Glish and Rosalie Murphy; brothers, Paul, Bill, Vince and Pat; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents and her husband, Ronald, Marge was preceded in death by her brothers Mark, Robert and Peter, John, Jerry, Tom and infant sister Patricia and four nephews.

Marge was passionate about her 35 year career as a registered nurse, retiring as Assistant Director of Nursing at Dickinson County Hospital. She enjoyed being a homemaker, was a fantastic cook and a wonderful baker. Many people were fortunate enough to be the recipients of her culinary skills! She also enjoyed working in her gardens. Marge received the most joy from her grandchildren, who were so fortunate to have her as a grandmother.

She will be greatly missed by her children, who were blessed to call her Mom.

Private family services will be held.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a memorial established in her memory.

“ So many dear memories of your mom and dad! I spent many hours of my young married years having coffee with Marge. Loved all her kind words and advice! Thought of her recently and said a prayer for her. God bless you all during this difficult time. Your folks were wonderful! She was a great wife, mom, grandmother sister and friend!

“ *We were lucky enough to know this wonderful lady as our son married her daughter. We would travel to Ironwood in our van and attend the ski jumping festivities and she graciously invited us to stay in their home. She was a wonderful wife to Ron, Mother extraordinary to her children, loving Grandmother and Great-Grandmother. We were truly blessed to have known her. Until we meet again Dear Margaret.
