“ Dear David and family, Your mom was a secretary for my dad, Richard Nicholls, over 50 years ago at the court house. She was the sweetest woman and so nice to me when I would go to work with my dad sometimes. She let me play office on her typewriter. I remember her and Howard with such fondness and their love of their son, David. We named our oldest son, David, too. My deepest sympathy in your loss of your parents. Mine have been gone since 1975 and '76.
