“ To our beautiful Lady Marge, you are now in the loving embrace of Robert and our dear Lord. While we will miss your gentle spirit, we take solace in knowing that we will once again meet in heaven. A special prayer is coming your way the next time I cross the Mighty Mac on my way to Youper Council. On behalf of the entire Grand Council Family, rest in peace my dear.

“ Sleep well and be in God's rest, Lady Marge. A gentle soul who always made us welcome when we came north for Youper Council, or when you saw her at the Grand Council. She was the perfect host and companion. May you be welcomed into His everloving arms.

“ The recent days have been filled with memories of your mother Margie. I remember especially the times when you were neighbors on the north side of Iron Mountain. I remember short visits to your home, I remember visits and babysitting done in our home on the Lake. I remember sharing leadership responsibilities with your mom--was it Bluebirds or Campfire Girls? I remember what a fine, sweet woman she was. My love goes out to you as you remember your lives shared with a wonderful woman, wife, mother and friend. Peace, Darlene Strand and Family My husband Terry O'Connor sends his heartfelt wishes also

“ We offer condolences for the passing of Margie. She was a wonderful gal! As some of you know, our parents, Lloyd & Johanna, were best friends with Margie & Bob. They enjoyed many years together in Eastern Star and countless nights playing cards at each other's homes. Their foursome has been reunited in heaven and we've got to believe they're shuffling the cards.
