“ so very sorry for your loss. Marilyn was a good friend when I lived in Norway - we had horses and dogs in common and enjoyed the company and friends that they provided. I will never forget her spirit, her sassiness and her love of having fun! I have missed her all these years since I've relocated. Did she have her opinions?? Yes! and did she share them with us? Hell, yes! God love her - she was one of a kind and will be missed! Prayers for as you go through this grieving process... she loved her family, for sure!

Fondly,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Marilyn was a strong, classy, smart lady. I've missed her sharing her horse knowledge over the past few years. She cared so for her animals, and knew so much about horses. I'm sure the old neighborhood won't be the same without her. God bless you all as you deal with her loss.

Sincerely, Debbie (Gendron) Polzin

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Aunt Marilyn. I always remember her being in the barn with the horses when we would arrive in Iron Mountain for our annual visits. The first time i ever heard or ate lasagna was at your house & i think I ate the whole pan! it became a staple at my house when I got married & had children. Everytime I make it she is right beside me, guiding me in my mind. Prayers are with you at this difficult time. God Bless all

Love

So sorry to hear. Marilyn stood for my mother at her wedding. I always loved going to her house because she loved the horses and always had lots of dogs around. She was my mother's best friend. The last time I saw her was at my Dad's memorial service last April. Gerald stood for my Dad at their wedding. They worked together at the Power Company for all those years. After retirement my Dad would always go over to visit Gerald. I see Chris now and again. My mother sends her love.
