

Mark Scott

December 5, 1942 - December 5, 2006

ROSEVILLE, Minn. - Mark Scott, 64, of Roseville, Minn., passed away peacefully on Dec. 5, 2006, after a long battle with kidney cancer and Myasthenia Gravis.

He is survived by his loving wife of 30 years, Peggy; daughter, Julie of Milwaukee; son, David (Reyell) of Kansas City; grandchildren, Sydney and Preston; brother, Roger (Nancy) Scott of Kingsford and nieces and nephew.

Mark was an electronic components salesman for 35 years, selling for Ragon/Kent Electronics and most recently for Electromatic. Mark loved skiing, his Harleys, the Indy 500 and the Packers.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Elmer and Edna, and brother, Kenny.

Visitation was held on Friday at the Roseville Memorial Chapel, 2245 Hamline Ave. North Roseville.

Graveside services will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday at Cemetery Park in Iron Mountain. Condolences may be expressed to the family of Mark Scott online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

Local arrangements have been entrusted to the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain.
