"Martha Blixt"

IRON MOUNTAIN - Martha Blixt, 93, a recent resident of Freeman Nursing Center, died Thursday, Feb. 24, 2005, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain.

Martha was born Jan. 6, 1912, in Dunbar, Wis., daughter of the late Joseph and Lillian (Van Deusen) Lachapell. She worked at the Four Seasons Club in Pembine, Wis. and at the M&M Hospital in Marinette, Wis. during her early years.

Martha married Walter Blixt on Oct. 24, 1936, and he preceded her in death in 1963. She worked for the Annex and Hyland Nursing Home for many years. She was a longtime member of St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church. She was also a member of the Universal Living Rosary Association, the Miraculous Medal Association, the Calvary Mothers and the Adoration Chapel. She enjoyed knitting, crocheting and was a great cook. Martha loved her family and helping others.

She is survived by three children, Elizabeth (Walter) Sala of Albuquerque, N.M., Glen Blixt of Green Bay, Wis., and Jeanette (Ray) Marchand of Kingsford; a brother, Joseph (Hilda) Lachapell of Menasha, Wis.; five grandchildren, Lisa (Dave) Temple of Geneva, Ill., Michael Marchand (fianc Katrina) of Iron Mountain, Sally (Chad) Baker of Geneva, Jill (Tim) Fresso of Roselle, Ill. and Steven Hohbein of Pennsylvania; two great-grandchildren, Nathan Baker and Theodore Fresso; and many nieces and nephews.

Martha was preceded in death by four brothers, Arthur, Edmund, Raymond and Lawrence Lachapell and two sisters, Agnes Lachapell and Irene Engel. Visitation will be Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Monday at St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church. Fr. Daniel Zaloga will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Martha Blixt online at www.erickson-rochon-nashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.
