“ I'll never forget the time spent at Six-Mile with 'Gramma Marie' & 'Papa Joe'. It was the best part of growing up; I always looked forward to the summer and spending time with Sissy, Jimmy Joe, my brother Waynie, Big Wayne, my mom Sharon, Auntie 'Dea', Uncle Larry, Paulie, Jackie, Shelly and Shannon. I'll never forget Sissy throwing her monkeys in the lake and Jimmy throwing us in the water and hanging out on the pontoon boat! My sincerest sympathy - Love, Dani

“ To the family of Marie ...sorry for your loss. May your memories be of great comfort to you at this difficult time. I remember going to your house as a kid to play w/ Sissy and that you had a "player" piano there...your mom was always letting us mess around on it. And I remember how much she always loved it when our youth group would carol there at Christmas way back in the 1980's. She was a very appreciative, sweet, kind person! God Bless. Mary R.
