“ I never would have guessed that Mike and I would have grown so close over the years. The bond that him and i developed was huge, just like Mikes kind heart. There will never be enough words to explain how much i truly LOVE my big brother. I miss him more than anyone could imagine and I am more than thankful that I got to spend what time I had with him in his last few years. Mom and I love you soooooo much Michael, and some day the 3 of us will be together again. You were a wonderful son, amazing brother, and an outstanding uncle. There won't be one day that goes by that I won't think of you in everything that I do. I will continue to tell Isaiah how much you loved him until the day I too leave this life of mine behind. You were my best friend in the whole wide world and I certainly hope you knew that. Love you soooo much, forever and ever till the end of time.
Love, Your little sister~

“ There are never the right words to express sympathies when losing someone like "Big Mike". He was a fantastic person with a gigantic heart. He accepted people regardless of most any situation or backround they came from. I have laughed and cried with Mike, and I have never met someone that always knew exactly what to say. I will never forget the times we shared with him. He had such a way with kids too. I don't know a young one that didn't beam when Mike walked in. They all wanted his attention, and some how he was able to divide his affection equally to each one of them. I love you, Buddy, and I will never forget you. You will always be remembered for the love and kindness you showed.
