He also enjoyed bowling, hunting, boating and fishing. His passions were cooking and politics. He was a great cook and loved doing so especially for his family and friends. He was very knowledgeable of current political affairs and worked for a political legislative research company. He loved working with people and brought joy and laughter to many with his sense of humor.

“ I worked for Mike at Bob's Homes for a couple years. Mike was a great salesman and I did learn alot from him, including patience. Thats five days a week side by side in one small office space...and he's the one to get the award? (Picturing Mike laughing, raising a big lit cigar to his mouth)

I will always cherish the time we had together and feel blessed to have another angel on my side.

“ I worked with Mike at Bob's Homes from his first day on the job. He was one of the best salesman that sold Stratford Homes, and he knew that product inside and out. If you were going to buy one you wanted Mike as your salesman because of his knowledge. He was a lot of fun to work with, anyone who knew him would say he was always good for a few laughs. I remember one time him & Jim (salesrep) went out for a few drinks and about 1:00 A.M. he got into his car and pushed a button on his phone and called one of his daughters in NV. Well needless to say they came into the office the next day and were laughing about that!! He will be missed by all who knew & loved him. I am proud to say he was my friend:) Rest In Peace Mike!!

“ Dear Turrie Cousins,

My fondest memories of Michael are from my earlier years visiting with my mom and dad (Jack & Anne Seymour). At that time, you lived on the north side in Iron Mountain. We would go to visit on Friday Nights to watch boxing and naturally have a "lunch" which as we all know in the Seymour family meant a table filled with delicious leftovers, lunch meats and sweets :) In later years, the visiting continued in Niagara. Those are some of my best childhood memories. I bragged to all of my friends that my cousin, Michael, looked just like Paul McCartney.

“ On my wedding day my father and I danced to the popular father/daughter dance song 'butterfly kisses'. After the wedding events we were traveling in the car with him to Reno from Carson City. While driving through Washoe Valley he was flipping through the radio stations. He stopped when he heard 'butterfly kisses' and said "this is the song we danced to!" I tried to hold back my emotions...this song is a tear jerker. I happened to glance up at the rearview mirror and I realized my dad had tears streaming down his face. This was surprising. It wasn't common to see my dad show much emotion. Needless to say...I can't listen to that song without a box of kleenex close by.

I love you daddy!
