“Jan, Paul, & Sydney: I am so humbled that you used my poem "God's Hands" to honor Milan. Although I only met Milan once, there was no doubt that he was a very happy child filled with love and innocence. Keep your faith in God and he will lead the way through this difficult time. It's our faith in God that keeps us believing that the end is just a new beginning and that we will get a chance to meet again. I will continue to pray for you and your family. Thoughts and prayers, Fred

“Paul, Jan, Bob, Sandy, Mike, Deb, Fred, Bonnie, Auntie Vita, and all the rest of the family...my deepest sorrow for all of you in this time of such a tragic loss. I have lite a candle at the Grotto, here in Portland, OR., for Little Milan...and for all of you. Prayers are being offered up at the Grotto, Our Sisters of Providence Convent, and throughout Providence Hospital. I know what it is like, to loss a little child, a child of God, and it is perhaps the most painful thing anyone can ever go through. I wish I could be there, but know I am with you in prayer. God Bless you with His peace and may the angels wrap their arms around all of you and give you strength! Hold tight to each other and allow God to bring you comfort. I am holding all of you tight, within my heart.

*With Love,
Cousin Kat & family*

“ Dear Jan, Paul, Sidney & all,
Jan, you know that I lost Jacob & then Hanna before they even had a chance to live, and I know there are no words that can comfort you right now. Our losses are different, yet the grief is the same. My heart aches for you, but you guys will make it through this. Right now, you may not know how, but you will. Remember, there is no handbook on grieving. God will help you find your way. You are all loved so much and need to love each other even more right now. I want you to know that you are in our prayers. Much Love, Desiree
