“Millie was our dear friend and neighbor while she resided on Hughitt Street. She always had a way of making us feel important in her life. Bill helped her move her belongings out of her cottage when she sold it. I will always remember her wit and stories about her life in Chicago, here--growing up, as well as retired life. She amazed us with her grace, faith in God, kindness to others, zest for life, her many friends, her interests, and her beloved GOLF GAME! Our family, Becky, Susie, Mary, Bill, and I (Kathy) are richer for having known our wonderful Millie.
