“ It would be hard to share one memory. Best backdoor neighbor you could ask for. I can still see Myrna and my mom sitting at the kitchen table planning their next adventure. Those 2 little ladies were always looking for shenanigans. I always thought of them as the modern day Lucy and Ethel. Myrna will be missed by all that met her. I am so blessed for our friendship. Myrna, thanks for the memories. Bruce, Danny, Kevin and Craig sending all my love. Your mom was a lot more than a friend to us, she was family.

I haven't seen Myrna probably since the 1970's but want to convey my condolences to her family. How lucky you were to have had such a wonderful wife, mother, sister, aunt, and more. She was gifted with a warm beautiful personality which she shared with those who knew her. Bruce may remember me from living upstairs next door in Branam's house from 1959 to 1962. May she Rest In Peace. Eveline Manninen Grimes
