"Myrtle Marcelini"

KINGSFORD - Myrtle Marcelini, our mother and grandmother, went home to be with her Savior and loved ones on April 21, 2005. We will miss you so much, you were a wonderful mother and grandmother. She was 94 years old. Myrtle was formerly of 221 Lyman St. in Kingsford.

She was born March 31, 1911, in Rockford, Ill., the daughter of the late Cora (Hoover) and Frank Ohlson. At a very young age, Myrtle moved with her family to Eagle River, Wis. After her parent's death, she moved to Kingsford where she met and married the love of her life, Joseph Marcelini on April 20, 1929. They lived in Kingsford, where they raised their four children. Joseph preceded her in death in 1987.

Myrtle worked for many years for Freeman's Convalescent Home as a nurse's aide and at Ball and Christy Furniture as a decorator. She was a member of American Martyrs Catholic Church and belonged to the ladies circle of the church. In 1956, Myrtle and her husband moved to Milwaukee where they owned and operated a Sweet Shop. In 1968, they moved to Green Bay, Wis. where they managed the Marvel Lane Apartments.

Myrtle and her husband enjoyed the many friendships they had with the Green Bay Packer players that lived there. Myrtle loved to visit with people and had a knack for making people laugh. While in Green Bay, Myrtle worked at the Curity Work Shop and gave time to nursing homes. In 1999, Myrtle returned to this area and resided at the Evergreen Apartments.

Myrtle is survived by one son, Douglas Marcelini of Milwaukee; three daughters, Donna Marble-Detampel of Green Bay, Darlene (Larry) Lidbeck of Kingsford and Virgie (Don) Pirlot of Niagara, Wis.; 10 grandchildren, Debbie (Rich) Tourangeao of Milwaukee, Denise (Gary) Wierzbinski of Milwaukee, Rick (Jeanette) Marble of Green Bay, Larry Lidbeck of Green Bay, Dawn (Jim) Fulcer of Appleton, Wis., Penney (Alan) Hildebrand of New London, Wis., Dana (Mary) Marcelini of Milwaukee, Jodi (Brad) Schmolesky of Appleton, Tammy (Chris) Clash of Iron Mountain and Stacey (Jeff) Wysocki of Appleton; a grandson-in-law, Dave DeBeck of Green Bay; 23 great-grandchildren; 13 great-great grandchildren; many nieces and nephews; and by her "second" son, Eldin Paguin.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by three brothers, Frances, Harry and Howard Ohlson; two sisters, Edith Smith and Myrna Baumler, a granddaughter, Linda DeBeck; a daughter-in-law, Doreen (Poirer) Marcelini; and two sons-in-law, Merrill Marble and Don Detampel.

Visitation will be from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Friday at American Martyrs Church in Kingsford.

Funeral services will follow at 11 a.m. on Friday at the church. Fr. Joseph Gouin will offer the Mass of the Christian Burial.

Burial will be in the Norway Township Cemetery.

A memorial will be established in her memory.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Myrtle Marcelini online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.

“ I was a CNA at ManorCare two years ago, and I assure you that I will never forget Myrtle. She had such a wonderful sense of humor, and whenever I would visit her, she would have a new line and I would inevitably have tears running down my face. I was laughing that hard. She was a wonderful lady, and someone I will always remember. I would like to extend my sincere sympathies to her family and loved ones. God bless.
