Naomi Christy

CHANNING - Naomi D. Christy, of Channing, died Thursday, Feb. 23, 2006, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain.

She was born in Norway, daughter of the late Frederick and Ida (Payne) Hammill. Naomi graduated from Vulcan High School and has been a lifelong resident of this area.

Following high school, she received nurse's training in Peoria, Ill. and post-graduate work as a registered nurse in obstetrics in New York. She was the school nurse at Niagara High School and worked at the VA Medical Center in Iron Mountain. Naomi served for five years in the Nursing Corps with the United States Navy during the Korean War.

She married Robert Christy on May 24, 1958, at Grace United Methodist Church in Norway. She was an active member of First Presbyterian Church in Kingsford, serving in the circle and as a church deacon and elder. Naomi was a member of the P.E.O Sisterhood, the Eastern Star and was an active leader and organizer in the formation of the local Hospice organization. She was an avid gardener, enjoyed traveling and visiting with friends.

She is survived by her husband, Robert and a son, Scott Christy of New York City; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Naomi was preceded in death by six brothers and sisters, Eunice Anderson, James Hammill, Mildred Blumenschein, Ada Lindholm, Kaye Roccietti and Howard Hammill

Friends may call from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Saturday at First Presbyterian Church in Kingsford.

Funeral services will follow Saturday at 11:30 a.m. at the church. Rev. Michael March will officiate.

Burial will be in the Norway Township Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made in her memory to the Dickinson County Cancer Unit.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Naomi D. Christy online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain has been entrusted with the funeral arrangements.
