

Nathan Maynard

February 10, 2010

IRON MOUNTAIN - Nathan E. "Butch" Maynard, 66, of N3655 Bass Lake Road, Iron Mountain, passed away on Wednesday, Feb. 10, 2010, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain.

Butch was born Oct. 11, 1943, in Newton, Mass., the son of the late Philip and Elizabeth (Rusha) Maynard. He was a U.S. Navy veteran.

Butch married Barbara Canney on Dec. 8, 1984, in Iron Mountain. He was a member of American Martyrs Catholic Church in Kingsford and sang in the choir for many years.

Butch enjoyed working outdoors, his dog, Lady and he was an avid NASCAR fan. Butch touched the lives of so many people because of his kindness and generosity. He would help anyone in need if he could. His smile and infectious laugh would light up a room.

In his own dark days struggling with cancer, his faith in God, courage and determination were absolutely inspiring. Butch was a truly good man and will be sadly missed.

He is survived by his wife, Barb; three brothers, Robert Maynard, Charles Maynard and Thomas (Bernice) Maynard; two sisters, Bonnie (Rick) Surprise and Marin (Dale) Raddemann and numerous nieces and nephews.

Butch was preceded in death by a brother, Philip Maynard and a sister, Katherine Vogel.

Visitation will be held on Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. at American Martyrs Church in Kingsford.

The funeral service will follow at 11 a.m. at the church. Fr. Joseph Gouin will offer the Mass of Christian Burial.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial will be established in his memory.

Condolences to the family of Nathan "Butch" Maynard can be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.
