

Olive Bailey

September 21, 2007

IRON MOUNTAIN - Helen Bailey, 95, of Iron Mountain, passed away on Friday, Sept. 21, 2007, at Tendercare of Midland.

Helen was born on May 31, 1912, in Iron Mountain, daughter of the late Verner C. and Olive B. (McFee) Freeman.

She married Edward M. Bailey on May 24, 1941.

While residing in Saginaw, she had worked for a local area bank, and for many years at the Saginaw Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Helen was an active member for many years of the First United Presbyterian Church of Kingsford. Helen enjoyed spending time with her family on boating trips and cross country vacations.

She loved being a mother and grandmother.

She will be lovingly and sadly missed by her grandson, Aaron (Amy) Joley of Nashville, Tenn.; nieces and nephews, Suzanne Mogan of Chicago, Marc (Creston) Mogan of Iron Mountain, Anessa (John) Mogan-Manuel of Chicago, and Martina Mogan of Downingtown, Pa. and countless relatives and friends she so lovingly touched through the years.

Helen was predeceased by her husband, Edward M. Bailey; daughter, Kathleen Joley; son-in-law, Thomas Joley, and her brother and sister-in-law, Verner and Marion Freeman.

Helen's family will receive friends at the Tondin-Ross and Freeman Funeral Home on Thursday from 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Funeral services will be held at 5:30 p.m. at the funeral home. Rev. Michael March will officiate.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park .

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider Tendercare of Midland.
