

Olive Derpinghaus

August 21, 2008

IRON MOUNTAIN - Olive Derpinghaus, 85, of Iron Mountain, died Thursday, Aug. 21, 2008, at ManorCare Health Services in Kingsford.

She was born on Aug. 2, 1923, in Alberta, Canada, the daughter of the late Austin and Gertrude (Moore) Ertel. Olive attended Cass City Schools. She was a longtime resident of Iron Mountain and worked at Dickinson County Hospital. She enjoyed playing bingo and visiting her family downstate.

She married the love of her life, Les Derpinghaus and he preceded her in death on Jan. 4, 1978.

Olive is survived by one sister, Martha Keyser of Cass City; 19 nieces and nephews, and many great-nieces and great-nephews.

She was preceded in death by five sisters, Helen Brown, Evelyn Bennett, Lillian Berry, Madelyn May, and Nina Hart, one brother, Ernie Ertel, and four infant brothers.

A memorial service will be held in Cass City.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park in Iron Mountain.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Olive Derpinghaus on line at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain is handling the arrangements.

“ *Bonnie,
My sympathies are with you . You were a wonderful and beautiful friend to Olive. I know that she loved you lots. I will always think of Olive when I see pigeons outside on the wire.
My thought and many prayers are with you and also her family members.
God Bless.
Amanda (Nurse at Manorcare)*
